Ruzsa Quarter Horses // 605.848.0887

By the way this filly's sire, Sawyers Game Changer, rides under saddle, I've always said he'd make a heck of a breakaway or heel horse! "Gamer" already has breakaway prospects out there showing incredible talent. Thikkerthanasnicker's dam, Senorita Surena, is also extremely handy under saddle working a rope being used as a ranch horse. That's no surprise—her sire Ima Sun Frost produced several top rope horses and was a full brother to Laughing San Frost, trained by JD Yates and shown at the AQHA World Show. This filly has versatility written all over her. I can easily picture her working cattle during the week and heading to town on the weekend to jackpot or futurity. There are so many directions you could take her!
